

DMS Presents Beauty and the Beast
By Ryder Hammer (DMS Grade 6 Student)

Olds- Forty-eight grade 5 and 6 drama club students will be performing Beauty and the Beast as adapted by Kathryn Schultz Miller. They will be performing on May 31st and June 1st. The drama students have been preparing for their production since their auditions in September. The production will be hosted at the Trans Canada Theatre at the Olds High School on May 31st and June 1st. Tickets will be sold at the Deer Meadow School office for $10 each.

The play is being directed by Mrs. Dawanna Morgan and Mrs. Jennifer Rabchak who are assisted by Olds High School students Russel Rabchak and Hailey Larson, both who have experience with acting and directing. Beauty will be performed by two actresses who will each have a public performance. They are Hannah Turnbull and Sophia Dodd. The Beast will be performed by Mannix Thorburn.

This beloved story follows Beauty as she takes the place of her father at the Beast's castle to pay off his debt for stealing a rose. This unlikely love story involves music, dancing, mystery, and comedy. "Beauty and the Beast will illuminate you with a lesson and give you light and laughter," says Ethan Giesbrecht (grade 6) who plays Mr. Sparkle.

Tickets are now on sale at Deer Meadow School for $10 each, so come on down and get your tickets.
