Principal's Message

Happy New Year! I hope the holidays were filled with good times with family and friends and that they provided some rest and reconnection. I wish everyone health and happiness in the year ahead!

Student Progress Reporting

Grades for each subject, as well as specific marks and teacher comments for individual assignments, are available throughout the school year on PowerSchool, with report cards communicating student achievement up to a set date in the year. Semester one report cards will be available on PowerSchool at noon on January 31st. If you would like help accessing PowerSchool please don't hesitate to give our office a call for assistance. Please note that PowerSchool access will be closed for report card preparation from January 20th through the 31st.
