The Great, The Wise, The Wonderful

By Millie Koch

Come and see the École Deer Meadow School grade 5-6 production of The Wizard of Oz. You can watch the play at the Trans Canada Theater from 7.00-8.30pm on June 1st and 2nd. Tickets will be sold at École Deer Meadow School, Copper Leaf Boutique in Uptown Olds or at the door for $10.

The Wizard of Oz was first written in 1900 by L. Frank Baum and was the one of the first movies ever made in colour. The play is about Dorothy, a girl from Kansas, who gets swept away by a cyclone into the magical world of Oz. As she desperately tries to find her way home, she makes several friends and discovers that there really is no place like home.

The amazing, enthusiastic cast will put on a show to remember. "Every member of this cast has contributed a lot of effort in the making of this production. I am sure you will be captivated if you attend our show," said Veda Zietsoff, one of the narrators in the play. If you haven't yet seen the Wizard of Oz, now is the time.

EDMS News

Spell-a-Thon Success

We wrapped up our Spell-a-Thon last week and we would like to congratulate our Spelling Bee winners:

Grade 5 - Ayaan Hossain, Grade 6 - Millie Koch, Grade 7 - Mukulu Shamvu, Grade 8 - Isabella Powell

Thanks again to everyone who collected pledges and to all of our amazing donors!

Spring Band Concert

Congratulations to our talented band and choir members on a terrific performance to wrap up this year's band season! Your hard work has not gone unnoticed and was on full display last Wednesday night! Great job Ms. Wright and students!

Screenagers: Under the Influence

The Town of Olds FCSS has partnered with ALL community schools in Olds to bring the NEW 'Screenagers: Under The Influence' documentary/film. Click here for more information and see the poster on the following page.

Division Track Meet

Congratulations to our track team that placed very well at the Divisional Track Meet. Our athletes had 18 - 1st place finishes along with 10 - 2nd place finishes! We will have 15 students representing École Deer Meadow at Zones in Calgary. Good Luck!
